William Darling, father of the famous Grace Darling, died at Edingburg lately, in his eightieth year. Deceased was for several years the keeper of the Longstone Lighthouse, Farne Islands, where some time ago he was succeed ed by his son, and returned to Edinburg to end his days in quiet and repose. It was while living at the Longstone Light that the event occurred which has given to his family a historical celebrity that will be lasting. A portion of the wreck of the Forfarshire steampromptly furnished on receipt of subscriptions.

The notes of the Third Series are precisely simdaybreak on September 6, 1838. By the nid of a glass persons were discovered clinging to the fragments of wreck; but the North Sunsacrificed. Grace Darling at length, by her entreaties and tears, induce I her father to get into a boat with her, and father and daughter reached the wreck in safety, where they had the satisfaction of saving the lives of nine persons, including that of a woman who lay half drowned in a corner of the wreck, with the stiffened corpses of her two children in her arms. This noble deed brought honors upon Grace and her father from every quarter, as well as substantial recognition. Grace died of consumption at Bamburg, in October, 1842, at 27 years of age. sacrificed. Grace Darling at length, by her subscribe at 27 years of age.

As the disease becomes chronic, the discharges are increased in quantity and changed in quality; they are now thick and heavy, and are hawked or coughed off. The secretions are offensive, causing a bad breath; the voice thick and nasal; the eyes are weak; the sense of smell is lessened or destroyed; deafness frequently takes place.

Another common and important symptom of Catarrh is, that the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morning of a thick or slimy mucous, which has fallen from the head during the night. When this takes place, the person may be sure that his disease is on its way to the lungs, and should lose no time in arresting it.
